Attending Mass: It is now mandatory that face-mask coverings must be worn in the church. If you would like to attend Mass in Annagry, please consider going to one of the weekday Masses instead of a weekend Mass. There is more availability of space at weekday Masses, than at weekends. If a family from one household comes to Mass, they can sit together. If there are two couples, they can sit at each end of a pew, otherwise the maximum number of individuals per pew will be two; with a maximum capacity of 50 in the church. You will be unable to stand at the back of the chapel or on the stairs. A huge thank you to our dedicated volunteers who sanitise the church daily.

Míle Buíochas: Thank you to Councillor John Sheamais Ó Fearraigh for his recent donation of €200 worth of sanitiser for the Church. Go raibh míle maith agat.

Annagry Graveyard Sunday At a recent Diocesan Council of priests meeting, it was decided with the Bishop, that outdoor parish graveyard services are not advisable this year, due to the large numbers who normally attend and travel from elsewhere. Therefore there will be no Annagry graveyard services this summer.

Holy Water: anyone who would like to have holy water blessed are asked to leave a small bottle of water with their name on it on the table at the back of the church; it will be blessed and ready for collection the following day.

Good Times, Great Memories: Summer plans are underway for an outdoor interactive schedule of events, activities, mini camps & the return of Fit Fest 2.0 celebrating Health & Well-Being. Places limited & we appreciate adherence to restrictions to maintain connections. Follow Rosses NYP (Facebook) for updates on good news stories & signposting for parents/guardians.
