St Pope John XXIII (1881-1963) Memorial 11th October: Already dying and in response to many who had asked him for the secret of his priesthood, Pope John, XXIII said. 'I had the supreme grace of being born into a modest and poor but God-fearing Christian family, and of being called to the priesthood. Since I was a child I have thought of nothing else, I have desired nothing else. My earthly day is at its end, but Christ lives on, the Church continues. And what other word is more suitable, then, than to exhort you to never take your eyes off the Cross of Jesus? Look at the cross, beloved children, in your sufferings. This bed is an altar, the altar needs a sacrifice: here I am. I am ready. I offer my life for the Church, the continuation of the Ecumenical Council, the peace of the world, the unity of Christians. The secret of my priesthood lies in the crucifix that I wanted to place in front of my bed, he looks at me and I speak to him ... those outstretched arms say that he died for everyone; no one is rejected by his love for him, by his forgiveness.' From the life of St John XXIII
